MATTAPOISETT TREASURER AT TOBEY

Mr. William H. Winslow of Barstow Street, Mattapoisett was taken to Tobey Hospital on Monday morning in the town ambulance. Mr. Winslow was stricken ill suddenly on Sunday night and was found on Monday morning on the floor of his living room. Mrs. James Sullivan, assistant to Mr. Winslow, came by to give him a ride to work and she and Mrs. Harry Erhard, a neighbor, gained entrance to the Winslow home after initially failing to rouse anyone. After examination by a doctor Mr. Winslow was transferred to the hospital in Wareham.

JUVENILE GRANGE MEETING

Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Friday night followed by a Christmas party in charge of the lecturer, Marilyn Lewis.

Susan Silva reported on the work of the Home and Community Service Committee. Her committee have nearly completed an afghan for the Children's Medical Center in Boston. They are also making Christmas napkin rings for the nursing home. Susan also had Christmas pins to sell on her table.

The Junior members have been asked to bring small gifts for a Christmas basket to be taken to a deserving child for Christmas. The packages are to be taken to Mrs. LeBaron's house

Notes of thanks were received from Mrs. Emma Atkinson and Mr. Joseph Furtado for the Thanksgiving cards sent them.

During the lecturer's hour carols were enjoyed. A manger tableau was done by Jane Harris as Mary and Mark Harris as Joseph with Silent Night being sung by Eddie Alves.

A reading, "Twas the Night Before Christmas," was given by Doris Fearing. Christmas songs were sung with Mrs. Jethro Ashley as pianist. The background of the program was a gaily lighted Christmas tree put up by David Bradley and Eddie Alves, assisted by the lecturer and her committee.

Mrs. Santa made her appearance and distributed Christmas gifts to all.

Refreshments of decorated cupcakes and hot chocolate were served by Charles Bean and Michael Rhodes, assisted by Mrs. Bean.

The next meeting, December 27th, will be

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, DECEMBER 10

Dennis Mahoney & Sons climbed back into the lead in the Rochester Bowling League handing Herbs TV Shop a 3 to 0 thumping. John Hayes led Mahoney's with a 347 with Maury Gifford hitting 353 for Herbs. Hillers Garage posted a new high three of 1800, with Eddie Figuerido pegging 412, to take 3 points from the Woodchoppers. Lou McKay carved a 413 for the Choppers. A new high single of 173 was set by Eddie Lawrence as Lloyds Market won 2 points from the Knotty Pine Cafe. Tony Lopes rolled a 380 for the losers. Henry Fisher pinned a 356 triple for Hartleys Garage who dropped 2 points to Hartley Saw Mill. Henry Hartley paced the winners with a 357.

CHRISTMAS PARTY AT ROCHESTER CLUB

Over 100 Rochester children attended the annual Christmas Party, sponsored by the Rochester Woman's Club, at the clubhouse on Marion Road. The hall was gay with greens and a tree splendid with bright balls and tinsel.

A magic show, presented by Armand Landry of New Bedford, held everyone spellbound. Mr. Landry used many young helpers from the audience in his act.

Santa Claus arrived on time and distributed gifts to one and all.

Mrs. George Church, chairman, was assisted with decorating by Mrs. Everett Hardy and Mrs. Douglas Church, and a group of young people, Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Corinne Martin of New Bedford; Mrs. Joan Maciel of Vineyard Haven, sister of the bride; and Miss Linda Bradley, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Debra Martin of Rochester was the flower girl. Edward Bradley, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Charles DeGrazia of Lakeville, Edgar Martin, Jr. of New Bedford, both brothers-in-law of the bride; and Peter Prewitt and Stephen Nowell, both of Marion. Richard Reynolds of Middleboro was the ring bearer.

Carrying a bouquet of cascade stephanotis and chrysanthemums, centered with a lavender orchid, the bride wore a gown, peau-de-soie, with a beaded appliqued princess style skirt, bows accenting the back waistline, and designed with chapel train, tapered sleeves and beaded lace high scoop neckline. Her pure silk illusion veil was caught to a queen's coronet.

Her attendants wore identical floor length sheaths of blue silk taffeta, designed with scoop necklines, three quarter length sleeves and cummerbund bodice accented by two back panels. Their fingertip veils were arranged on circlet crowns. They carried cascades of mixed colored chrysanthemums. The flower girl, wearing a gown identical to those of the attendants, carried a basket of mixed chrysanthemums.

Cranberry accessories and a mixed corsage complemented the bride's mother's gray and white faille dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a cranberry wool dress, matching accessories and chrysanthemums.

For her going away costume the bride wore a matching charcoal tweed coat and dress, accented by cranberry accessories and a corsage of red and white chrysanthemums.
